Outlook & Valuation

The quarter shows steady core earnings with profitability supported by lower funding costs (cost of deposits down 24 bps y-o-y to 4.64%) offsetting a fall in asset yields, while a sharp drop in provisions to ₹9.14 bn cushioned a 67.6% decline in treasury income. Growth is increasingly driven by business banking (+24.8% y-o-y) rather than retail (+6.6%), and the domestic credit/deposit ratio has risen to 86.3%, making deposit mobilisation the key variable. Asset quality metrics improved across gross NPA (1.58%), net NPA (0.39%) and net slippages, and the balance sheet retains ₹131.00 bn of contingency provisions plus a 16.35% CET1 ratio. Return ratios moderated, with standalone RoE at 16.0% and RoA at 2.33%. The document is a company investor presentation and contains no analyst recommendation or price target; accordingly we are NOT RATED with no target price.
